TO A LITTLE GIRL.

W. F. Norris, in Scribner.

Little girl with dainty feet,
Blithely flying down the street,
The toughest heart you would beguile
With your pretty face and winning smile.
Little girl, you are very fair;
With your rosy cheeks and flowing hair;
Your eyes are bright, your heart is young,
And words are music from your tongue.
Little girl, I love you well,
How much my verse can never tell,
But if the truth must be confessed,
I love your grown-up sister best.

SNAKES IN NEW MEXICO.

Incidents of the Climate - Rattlesnakes, Centipedes and Tarantulas.

From the Boston Herald.

New Mexico has a brilliant climate; one could hardly desire a better, but there are incidents about that climate. A gentleman built a handsome frame house in central New Mexico, and took his family to live in it. It came winter, and a fire was regularly built in the kitchen stove. One day the, cat was about to get under the stove according to the custom of its kind, when it was observed to give a jump of an unusual altitude, and a number of eloquent snarls. Investigation showed a rattlesnake curled up under and enjoying the heat of the stove. The snake was killed, but the next day another one appeared in the same place. This thing was kept up for some days. A snake was killed every day. Finally one was found in the gentleman's bed. He watched to see where they came from, and in the end satisfied himself on this point. Breaking away the wooden plank which lined the wall at the junction of the floor in the kitchen, he came upon a nest of rattlesnakes in the wainscoting. Emigrants never sleep on the ground in New Mexico. Another pleasant feature of the climate is to wake up in the middle of the night and hear a centipede scratching over the counterpane. These ugly little devils leave dark red trails on the flesh they crawl over. Tarantulas are quite sociable fellows in this happy country. In handling old tapestry, or window curtains, you are very likely to put your fingers on a centipede or a tarantula.

An Indian Sun Dance.

From the New York Sun.

Dr. Woodbridge describes a sun dance recently given by the Sioux in Montana. There were about 5,000 Indians present, the dance, which took place in an arena 150 feet in diameter, enclosed by willow branches, lasting 28 hours. During the time the Indians feasted on 40 dogs, large quantities of buffalo meat, and delicacies, while the participants in the dance subjected themselves to horrible torture, such as having buffalo heads suspended from slits in their flesh, the weight of which constantly increased the laceration. Some of the braves fainted, and many had from 50 to 200 pieces cut out of the living flesh. Others were held to stakes, about which they were forced to dance, by cords fastened to their back. The performance was varied by prayers to the Great Spirit for success at the chase.

The Perry Fish Ponds.

From the Utica Herald.

At Half Way, a station between Auburn and Syracuse, are the Perry fish ponds, where brook trout, salmon trout, and California trout are raised for market. The water in the ponds is pumped from clear mountain streams. All the eggs are packed in moss. The fish are fed upon the lights or lungs of animals, as this kind of meat does not sink to the bottom, and these trout feed from the surface. When food is thrown to them they show as much eagerness as a flock of chickens, rushing pell mell over each other, throwing the water up in little sprays, and flinging it about until visitors who object to being showered step back. Minnows and small brook trout are also thrown to them, which are taken down, Jonah-like, at one swallow.

An Opera for Reno.

From the Stock Exchange.

The implements of justice were again brought out at Reno yesterday, and a citizen was soon parading the suburbs in a feather ulster with a tar lining. Ralph Rackstraw McEwen, once the roaring tenor of Reno, and now the boss warbler of the Comstock, is engaged in composing an original opera for the exclusive use of Reno. As the moon sets behind Mount Davidson, and the first faint glimmer of the dawn appears across the Forty-Mile Desert, the slumbering policeman is aroused by, "Sing hey the merry feathers and the tar! Sing hey the useful bucket that you are!"

Outstripping The Law.

Col Bee, the Chinese consul in San Francisco, explains the increased arrivals of Chinese at that port, on the ground that the belief in China is that the bill restricting emigration from that country to the United States had actually become a law, and that subsequent to the 4th of July only fifteen persons could take passage on one steamer. The Chinese having learned that the measure had passed both houses of congress, concluded that the question was settled, and hastened to start for the golden shore while there was yet an opportunity.

MISCELLANEOUS

Frank Davidson, a Missouri murderer, was taken twenty miles by railroad to be hanged, in order to reach "a favorite spot for such a spectacle, situated in a valley, surrounded by bold hills, affording a view of the gallows for 5000 persons."

The last Missouri legislature passed a law making it a felony for a bank to accept deposits in the institution if he knows it to be in a failing condition, and imposing the same punishment as that for stealing money. Under this statute several St. Louis bankers are to be tried.

At sunset every evening the interesting spectacle is witnessed in Hohokus, N. J., of throngs of swallows descending into the tall chimney of the Zabriskie mill. They may be counted by hundreds, and their regular time of retiring is eagerly waited for by the young people in the neighborhood.

Thomas Harland, a miner at Hollis, Ill,, lighted a slow match leading to a blast, and signalled to be drawn up the shaft. He struck a projection and was thrown back to the bottom of the shaft, where he lay with a rib broken. Realizing his father's peril, his young son slid down the seventy feet of rope, lacerating his hands terribly, but reaching the bottom in time to tear the match from the fuse and prevent the explosion.

A sudden rain storm swelled a Dakota mountain stream to a torrent, and David Morton, arriving at its bank with his wife in a wagon, found that he could not cross. Desiring to get rid of Mrs. Morton, he threw her into a stream and drove the horse in after her, letting both drown. A Coroner's jury was about to decide that the woman had been accidentally killed, when a detective arrived with the news that there were the marks of a struggle beside the stream. This overwhelmned Morton; and he confessed the murder.

Very Large Oysters.

From the Seattle Intelligencer.

Ysterday F. M. Guye showed us a couple of very large pearl oysters, which he had captured at Richt's Passage, at the head of Bainbridge's Island, at extremely low tide, on the day previous. They would open and close their shells, thus showing conclusively that they were still alive. We have often heard of oysters being as large as a plate, but one of these was as large as a skillet. The largest one of the two weighed five and one-half pounds, and measured nine and one-half inches across the shell one way, and seven and three-fourths inches the other way. Its larger circumference was twenty-four inches, and its thickness over three inches. This is the largest oyster, no doubt, ever found in Puget Sound.

Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum.

DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM works wonders. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, these troubles are entirely cured by the Nephreticum. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back side and loin are cured when all other medicines have failed.

See what the Druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum and English Dandelion Pills:

"We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicines; the English Dandelion Pills; also the Nephreticum, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland.

C H Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland.

Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale, Druggists, Nos. 3 and 5 Front street, San Francisco, say:

"We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy before the public."

All Druggists keep these medicines.

For all derangements of the Liver,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.
For Billiousness and Dyspepsia,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.
For Fever and Ague,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

Every family should keep the English Dandelion Pills on hand.

Dr. Mintie's Remedies will not "Cure all Complaints," but will, if taken according to directions, give immediate relief and perfect a cure in all troubles for which they are recommended. jan6-6m

THE MOUNTAIN LABORED.

After George C. Gorham's speech at Union Hall, San Francisco, on the 11th inst., in which he denounced Frank M. Pixley as an "unconvicted felon," and promised if Pixley dared deny it to post "positive proof of his guilt on the walls of the city," the public waited in anxious expectation to see what Mr. Pixley would do about it. Gorham's charges were made with such fearful distinctness and his denunciations were so bitter and pointed that it seemed as if no adequate reply could be framed. But in the last number of the Argonaut Pixley replies with telling effect. His reply is couched in caustic language, and repels manfully every accusation of his assailant. At Union Hall Saturday night, Gorham attempted to make good his charges, but instead of doing so wandered off into fiery invective, tinged somewhat with blackguardism. Reading the two speeches and Pixley's dignified answer, one is forced to the conclusion that Gorham's thunder was accompanied by a very insignificant bolt. The only proof of Pixley's being a felon he cited was an answer, sworn to by Pixley, to a libel suit brought by Senator Sargent against him, wherein he denied the authorship of a certain article. This constitutes the flimsiest of grounds to base a charge of felony on. In all suits the defendant must file a sworn answer to the complaint, and it is merely a legal form of defying the plaintiff to the proof of the allegations in his complaint. Men acquainted with legal forms and usages will laugh at Mr. Gorham's charge of perjury in this connection. Gorham has made a great deal of noise, but it is like a Chinese bomb—harmless.

CHAS. L. ANDREWS.

Chicago Tribune, April 26.

Chicago has been fortunate in hearing many of the most eminent violinists. After last night's concert it seems as if they had been the mere avant couriers of the great REMENYI; as if they were intended to prepare for a better appreciation of the many excellencies of the Hungarian virtuoso. The salient points of his playing are pure intonation, perfection of bowing, and above all a piano, such as probably has never been heard before. Indeed, were one to epitomize his playing, one might say that "the piano is his forte." It approached more nearly the mezza voce of the human voice than anything ever attempted by instrumentalist. The versatility of his genius could not be illustrated more forcibly than it was by the performance of Ernst's fantasia of Othello, Paganini's capriccioso, the Carnival of Venice, and REMENYI's own compositions and transcriptions. The critic's vocation is gone when REMENYI plays, for who can criticize when he plays his double stops and octaves with the most wonderful precision and rapidity? Who can compare when his staccato seems to deliver a spray of sweet tones? and who can stop to think when that ravishing pianissimo alternates with the sonorous fortissimo, and such energy, such pathos and volume of tone? It seems almost impossible to find a standard by which to measure his greatness as an artist.

The great audience displayed an enthusiasm that was a just compliment to genius, and of course double work was demanded and gracefully performed.

Mr. REMENYI was admirably supported by the other great artists of the party, and the entertainment was rounded out to a perfection seldom if ever before equalled in a concert given in Chicago.

Mrs. Thurston is an artiste of great cultivation, and possesses a voice of singular sympathetic quality. Her voice is under excellent control, and her execution is finished and smooth. She sings with great ease and grace, and gained a rapturous encore after her Huguenots' aria, which she rewarded with a charming Rubenstein song.

Mr. DULCKEN, the solo pianist and accompanist, has a national reputation as one of the best artists, and the Chicago audience had the privilege of adding their endorsement last evening. He has a finished technique, and a touch of singular grace and beauty. It was indeed a privilege to hear Mendelssohn's magnificent rondo rendered with such expression and feeling as he gave it. His accompaniments to REMENYI's numbers were truly artistic, and it must be admitted added greatly to the splendid work of the maestro.

JOTTINGS.

—Oppressively warm to-day.

— A young man named Peck is ill with diptheria.

— The freight business over the railroads is quite heavy just now.

— Don't miss hearing Remenyi, the wonderful violinist, to-morrow evening. See advertisement.

—The new Baptist church has begun to assume shape. It will be a handsome edifice when completed.

— A. Strassburger & Co. have concluded to discontinue the unrighteous practice of selling dry goods on Sunday.

—Tickets to the Remenyi concert are $1 00. Reserved seats can be secured at the postoffice—no extra charge.

The Concert To-Morrow Night.

The kind of entertainment that may be expected for to-morrow evening, can be inferred from the following notice of Remenyi's performance in Virginia, taken from this morning's Enterprise: "It does not seem possible for any man to draw from this instrument more thoroughly charming melody; more sympathetic music; more appealing strains; more delicious sentiment; more surpassingly beautiful effect in diminuendo; more grand, thrilling, stormy passages; more soft, tender, touching sounds; more different styles of music, than does Edouard Remenyi. We have been in the Opera House when the audience appeared to be fairly carried away with that taking place on the stage, but the enthusiasm of last evening has hardly ever been equaled."

Remenyi In Virginia.

From the Virginia Chronicle.

Remenyi practices constantly on his violin, and sometimes spends eight or nine hours a day with his instrument. Yesterday afternoon he was industriously practicing at the International hotel, and the lodgers were treated to a free exhibition of the man's astonishing powers. Those who heard him yesterday say that it is simply a ravishment of the senses, and Hanak talks of firing him out of the house, as the chambermaids and porters congregate before his door and neglect their work. Storer, the clerk, alludes to him as "the boss."

The Shops He Wanted Closed.

Pious capitalist to wicked merchant: "Are you not in favor of Sunday closing?"

W. M.—"Yes, if one class will observe it."

P. C.—"What class do you allude to?"

W. M.—"The ministers. If they will only close up their shops on Sunday, I am in for it.

The New Stock Yards.

The new stock yards, which the Central Pacific Co. are building near the Meat Shipping Association's yards, are located too far out of town to be convenient to shippers. It is to be regretted that the company did not see fit to build them nearer town. Had they done so, much time and inconvenience would have been saved. Perhaps it is not too late to move them to a more available point.

A Dirty Beast.

Constable Avery arrested an old sheep herder, named D. A. Harrison, this morning, for indecently exposing his person. The old brute pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to ten days' imprisonment in the county jail. Harrison was up before the justice court some time ago on a charge of selling whiskey to Indians.

Held to Answer.

The preliminary examination of Henry and Anderson, arrested by Constable Avery on suspicion of being the parties who burglarized Abrahams Bros. & Co.'s store, was concluded in Virginia yesterday. They were held to answer before the grand jury.

THOMAS' CANYON.

A Ride Through the Oldest Part of Nevada.

In the early days of Washoe county, when mining first began on the Comstock, the greater part of the wood used there was drawn from Thomas' and White's canyons, and the country about Washoe. The latter was a large town, and Reno was a sagebrush flat, without a house. From the mouth of the canyon, which reaches within four miles of Brown's station on the V. & T. R. R., to the summits there was a very fine growth of timber, especially on the south side of the canyon. The north side was very spotty. This timber was cut over for a distance of four miles, and the mills torn down ten years ago. The first was built by Thomas & Welch, in 1862, and was bought afterwards by T. K. Hymers, who run it until '68, when he sold the engines to a Verdi mill company, and the balance of the machinery to Mr. Poor, who moved it over to Hunter's creek and wore it out there. John M. Thomas, in whose honor the canyon was named, is now connected with the Monte mine, near Los Angeles His partner lives East somewhere. The head of the canyon was owned by Frank Bricker, who sold it to a man named Caldwell. He took in a partner, and built a mill in a very heavy bunch of timber a couple of miles above Thomas' mill, which he run from '64 to '68, when his partner burned him out, leaving only the old log-bed which still marks the spot. A. Barnes and H. McKinnon are the only pioneers who still haunt the canyon. They have wood and lumber business which keeps them there, and they tell interesting stories of the times when Galena and Washoe were Washoe county.

THE TIMBER

in this, and White's, the large canyon south of it, consisted of yellow pine of excellent quality, a very large red fir, and, higher up, a great deal of white fir. A couple dozen of sugar pines were found at an elevation of about 6000. There is not one left on all the Washoe slope, however, except half a dozen on Hunter's creek, about five miles above Mayberry's ranch. At the higher elevations there is considerable white fir, but it is scrubby and poor. The very summits are covered with a close growth of gnarled and squatty tamaracks, acres of which have been killed by the fierce storms which sweep across the great backbone. Their skeletons stand white and glistening in the sun. The mountain mahogany usually stands on the south side of the canyon, opposite the tamaracks which, like the fir and pine, grow almost entirely upon the hillsides which face north. The operations of these two mills, aided by the constant inroads made by the ranchers, who have of late years settled in the valley, have stripped the canyon of all the most available timber. Patches still cling to the most inaccessible places, high on the sides of the ridges on either side, and on the main wall of the mountains at the head of the canyon. The operations begun last year by the will clean up everything that can possibly be taken out with profit, by the end of next summer. A V-flume extends from Brown's station nearly to the summit, and the wood is being hauled to it in many different places. It is cut into four-foot blocks, and rolled down, or hauled on sleds with heavy steel runners, drawn by two stout horses. Between 10,000 and 12,000 cords will be cut this year. One hundred men are employed. A piece of fine engineering had to be done by Mr. Gilchrist, to get the good of the water. The old flume into White's canyon, was supplied with water owned by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Howard, who were perfectly willing to have the flume company use it, as long as they could turn it over their land after it reached them. The water in Thomas' canyon, however, belongs to G. W. Huffaker and Mr. Dalton, and if it was used in fluming wood out to Brown's, it could not be gotten to their lands. Mr. Gilchrist solved the problem by running Thomas' creek through the flume to the mouth of toe canyon, where it connects with the old flume from White's canyon, down which flows the water needed at Brown's station where the wood is wanted. Half a dozen steel bars at the junction let the water drop into the bed of the creek, and the sticks of wood slide right over into the flume going to Brown's and never lose a minute. The ride up the canyon is devoid of interest. The road is good, and the rise steep but regular, at the rate of 150 feet to the mile, until within a mile of the summit, where it rises right up about a thousand feet. Occasional glimpses of the valley spread out handsomely, and from the summit the view is very grand and impressive. It is nearly 10,000 feet above the sea.

EL DORADO WOOD AND FLUME CO.,

An Escaped Lunatic.

State Treasurer Crockett came down from Virginia on the lightning last evening, in charge of a lunatic named Frank Duffy. Duffy was committed to the Stockton asylum on the twenty-ninth of last January, and had probably escaped from the institution. He was found in Virginia yesterday, and was evidently insane. His manner and actions here were those of a mad man. His arms were strapped to his sides and his appearance was wild in the extreme. Treasurer Crockett took him back to Stockton last night.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

The Revolution At Panama—Suicide At Chicago—The Yellow Fever Raging At Memphis— Railroad Strike In Missouri—A Sad Story.

Suicide at Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, July, 22.—Elizabeth and Annie Trowbridge, suicided by hanging at Chicago yesterday, because their father had taken their property from them and they were penniless.

Railroad Strike in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Between 200 and 300 railroad workers employed as warehousemen and freight handlers at the yards in East St. Louis struck today for an increase of wages. They had been receiving a dollar a day and demanded a dollar and a quarter.

Disappointment and Death.

DECATUR, Ill., July 21.—Mrs. Rhineheart in attempting to rescue her daughter, Miss Honiker, from the Sangamon river, went down with her and both were drowned. Miss Honiker had plunged into the stream, after having waited at the Catholic church for a young man who was to have married her to-day.

Revolution at Panama Ended.

PANAMA, July 22.—The revolution in Magdalena is over and President Robles is in prison. About six hundred lives were lost in the struggle.

The Situation at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—Five new cases reported to the Board of Health this morning. Four deaths have occurred since last night. The two colored military companies, McLellan Guards and Memphis Zouaves have volunteered their services to protect property in the city if necessity arises.

THE RENO WATER DITCH CO.

Progress of the Work—An Abundant Supply of Water at High Pressure—The Enterprise Approaching Completion.

The Reno Water Ditch is being pushed forward rapidly. This ditch when completed will supply the town of Reno with water in pipes, for domestic and other purposes. It must not be confounded with the Highland ditch, which is a separate and distinct water course, intended for irrigation purposes. Both ditches come in on the northern side of the town. The Reno Water Ditch will terminate in a large reservoir, to be constructed on the hill in the rear of the Bishop's school. Work on the reservoir will be commenced very soon. The water in the Reno Ditch is now about four and a half miles from town, and takes its flow from the river at a point about six miles distant from the reservoir site.

EXTENSIVE TRESTLE WORK

has just been completed on the line of the ditch where it crosses a ravine three miles from Reno. The trestle work is 550 feet long and 100 feet high. The ditch carries 2000 inches of water and the reservoir will be at an elevation of 150 feet above the town. The works will be in operation about September. The foregoing particulars of the progress of the ditch have been furnished by Charles Deves, the foreman in charge of the work on the trestles. The completion of this ditch will be of immense advantage to Reno. It will furnish a greatly increased protection against fire, and will in many ways add to the appearance, health and cleanliness of the place.

A New Club Formed.

A new club has been organized in Reno. It is known as the "Sit Around Club," and embraces a large membership. The "Sit Around Club" in character is a sort of cross between the Sazerac Lying Club of Austin and the Damphool Infirmary of Eureka. Its by-laws obligate the members to never refuse an invitation to drink, never buy tobacco, and never let anybody tell a story they haven't heard before. In some respects it resembles congress. When not in regular session it is always in extra session, and never appropriates anything to support the government, or anything else. The club has no president, and all the members are vice-presidents.

Pay Up.

Delinquent town subscribers to the GAZETTE must settle up next Monday, the 28th inst. If they do not, their paper will be stopped until they do settle. No questions need be asked if delinquent subscribers hereafter miss their GAZETTE; but come to the front and "ante" regular every week, and your paper will then be continued if you so desire. If the collector does not find you, you will find the door of the office wide open to receive you when on such business.

Building Again.

James A. Scott, one of the owners of the Mansaloua mine, has hauled lumber out to the mine to rebuild a house, which was accidentaly burned down a short time ago by some sheep herders who were occupying it. The loss by the fire amounted to about $300.

PERSONAL.

Judge S. D. King arrived last night from Carson, and opened court to-day.

Nels Hammond returned yesterday evening from a trip to Lassen county.

S. S. Grass, of Winnemucca, was in town last night, and this morning left for Virginia.

Frank Free, Supt. of the Truckee Division of the C. P. R. R., was on last evening's lightning train.

J. A. Fillmore, Supt. of the Western Division of the C. P. R. R., was a passenger on the lightning last night.

Hon. R. M. Daggett and D. E. McCarthy of the Virginia Chronicle were passengers on last night's lightning for San Francisco.

Gen. R. M. Clarke returned last night from a visit to Paradise Valley, where he has been inspecting some mining property.

—T. F. Laycock commenced painting the scenery for Hammond & Wilson's new theater, which is fast approaching completion, to-day.

Major Eaton and Ned Bridges departed last night for Eureka, where they will organize a party for the purpose of making a government survey in Diamond Valley.

Talk is Cheap,

And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this state. Everything we have is new. No old, musty, and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices, and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. we make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of our specialties. Remember th place, the White House, No. 19 Commercial Row.

The Truckee and Steamboat Canal.

Lung Chung & Company, the contractors who are building the 38 miles of the Truckee and Steamboat Ditch, have now finished 28½ miles, leaving four and one-half miles to finish the contract. They are trying to get money to pay off the hands to resume the work. They will be at work again inside of the present week. The Truckee and Steamboat Ditch Company have not overpaid nor paid what is due. If they had made their payments we would have had the canal finished long ago. The canal will cost the contractor about $80,000. AH QUONG, Agent,

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Ardeen Jones greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jemima Jones as plaintiff in the Districtcourt of the Second Judicial District, and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Mono county, California, on or about July 29th, A. D 1873, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about September 9th, A. D. 1875, you, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have so continued and do now so continue to desert, abandon and live apart from the plaintiff against her will, wish or consent; that for more than a year next preceeding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected and now do fail and neglect to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part, which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

SEAL. In testimony whereof I, P. B. Comstock, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this sixth day of December, A. D. 1878.

P. B. COMSTOCK,
Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county.

Louderback, of St Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guarantee to all buyers of its purity and quality.

I can show thousands of letters from private persons from all parts of the Union and Canada, to testify to its merits and the benefit it has afforded, as a family remedy and tonic.

Osburn & Shoemaker agents for Washoe county, will supply dealers at jobbers' rates by the bulk or case. may5tf

Also for sale by Pinniger & Queen, Druggists, and by John F. Myers, Druggist.

WHY STAY POOR?

Prospecting often Pays; Idleness Never.

The millions of the Comstock were a lucky find. Worthless looking rock is often rich in treasure. At Leadville a simple assay made millionaires of many. Other bonanzas where least suspected await the coming of some unknown man. Who is he?

At Virginia City, Nevada, assays for Gold and Silver are made at $1.00 per sample, by CONRAD WIEGAND, formerly the Supervising Assayer of the U. S. Mint at San Francisco.

The mail will carry ore-samples to his office for one cent per ounce.

Reports which may be relied on absolutely, come back by return mail, or results are telegraphed when ordered so.

All costs, delays and risks in remitting money are avoided by the purchase of our Dollar Remittance Tickets, which pay for all work done in our establishment.

We sell these prepaid tickets at a discount, when $5 worth or more are ordered at one time.

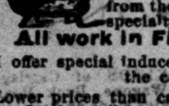

Small sacks for mailing ore samples also for sale at a nominal price.
